Ariel is a little mermaid. She loves searching for human treasures at the bottom of the sea. Her best friend, Flounder, sometimes gets nervous, but Ariel always makes him feel better . . .

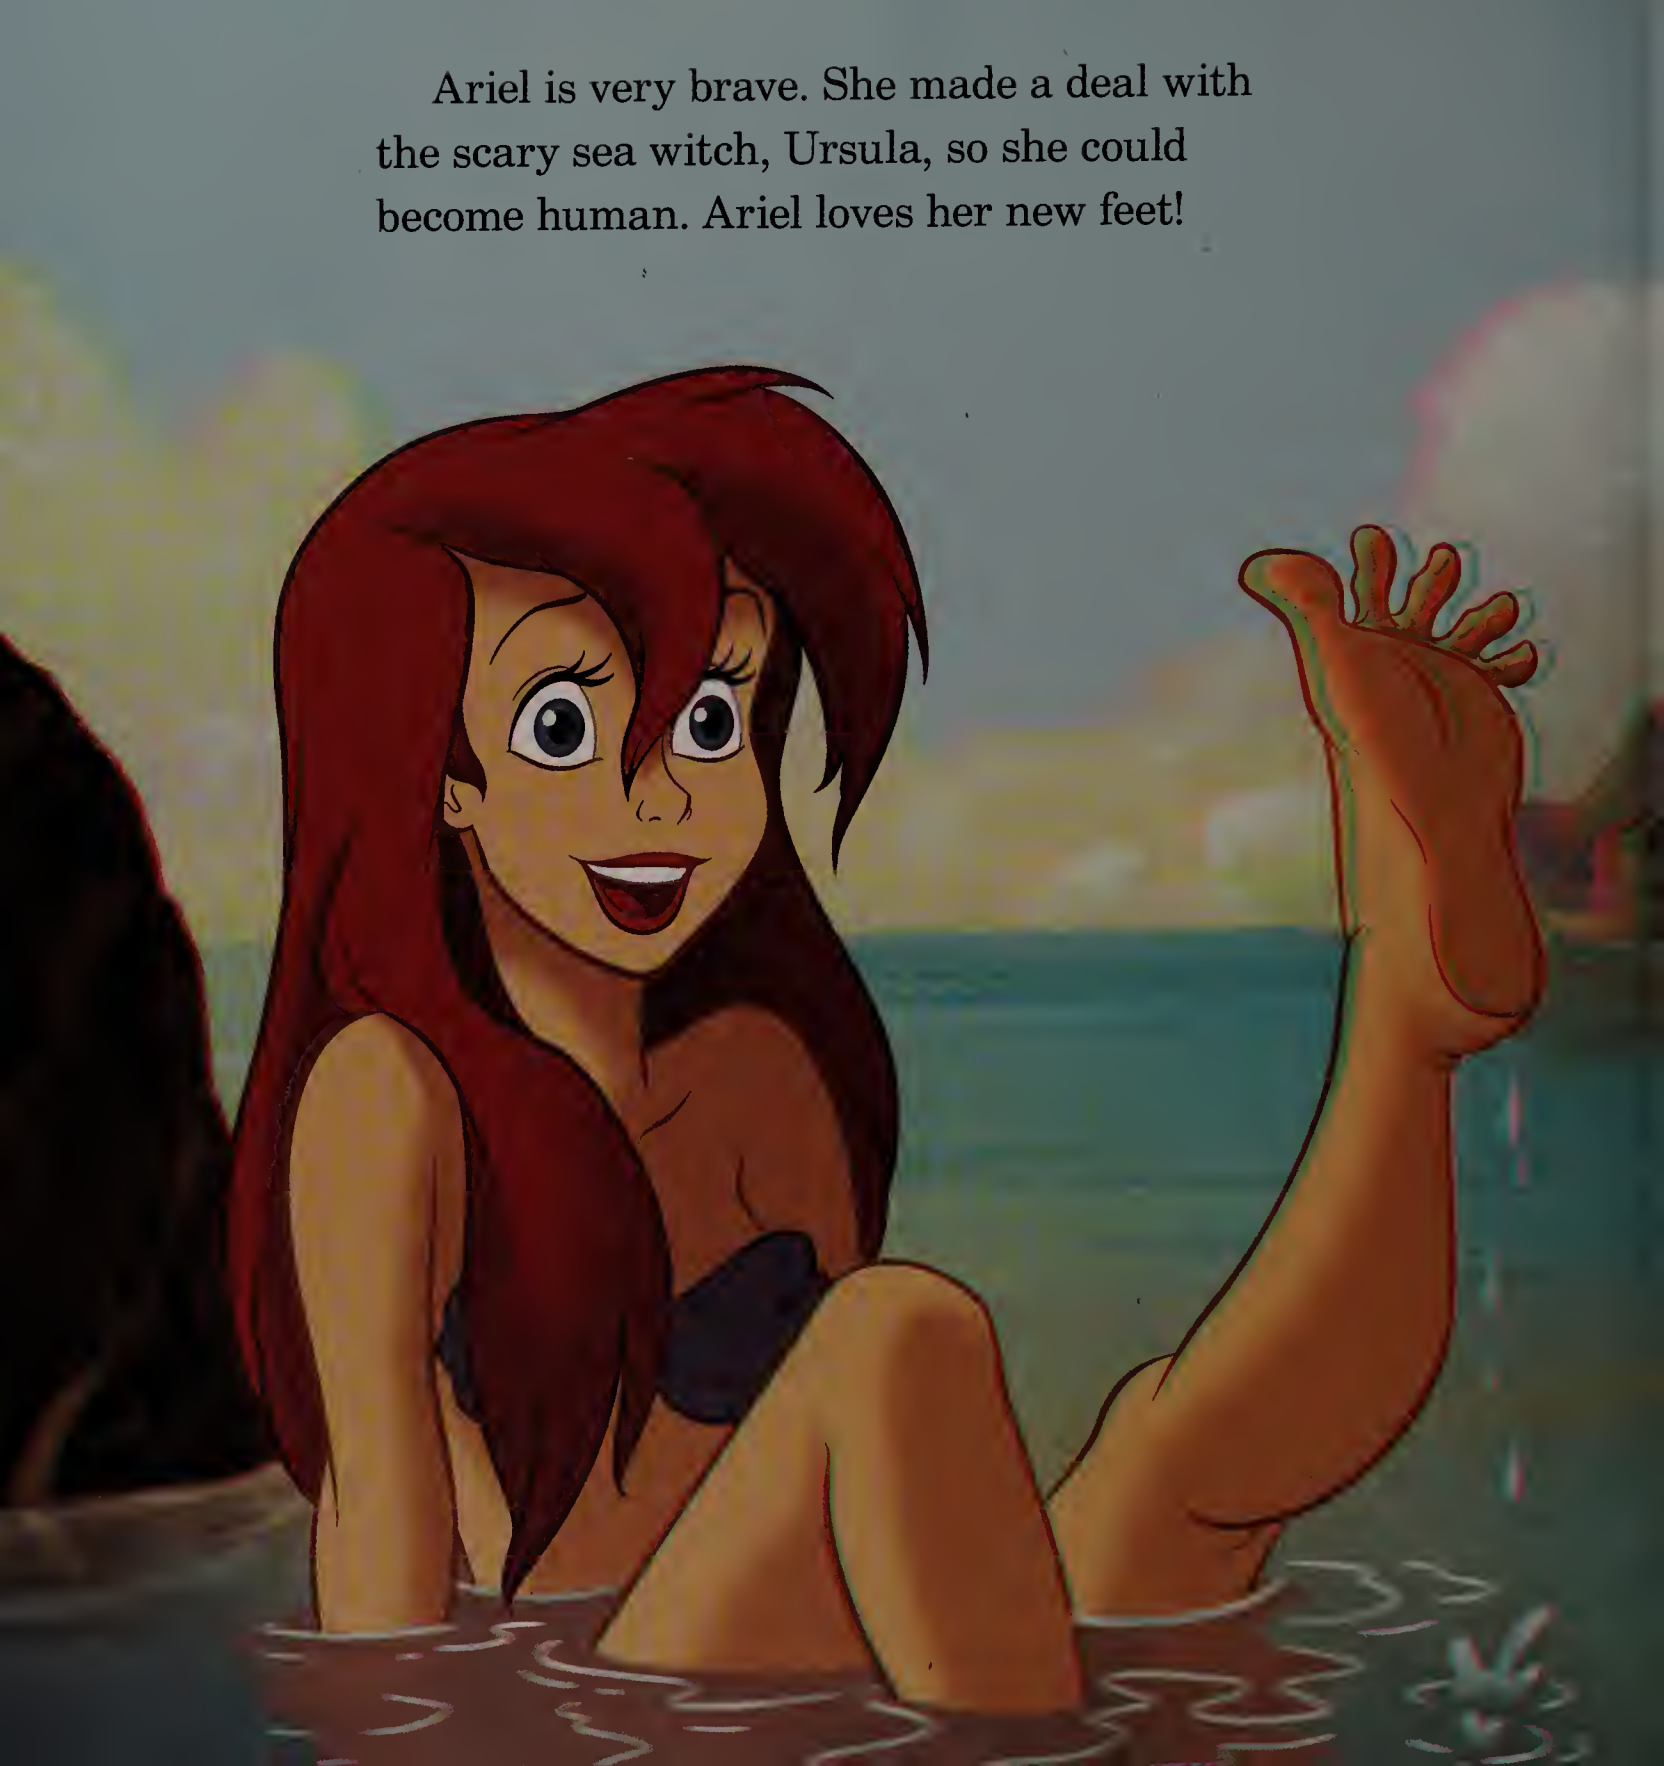
. . . unless a shark shows up!

Luckily, Ariel and Flounder can swim fast and squeeze through tight spaces.

Ariel enjoys discovering new things. She doesn't know what this pointy thing is, but she is going to add it to her collection.

Ariel's favorite treasure is a statue of Prince Eric. When the statue fell off the prince's ship, she brought it to her secret grotto.

Ariel is very brave. She made a deal with the scary sea witch, Ursula, so she could become human. Ariel loves her new feet!



Music always makes Ariel happy. Sebastian the crab leads an animal orchestra while Ariel and Eric enjoy a boat ride.

Ariel really likes to dance—something she could never do as a mermaid!

Ariel loves to use the things she finds in the human world.
But sometimes she doesn't use them quite right!

Ariel is a terrific singer! As a mermaid, she performs underwater concerts. On land, she sings for Eric.

Ariel is amazing!
